ABOUT THE TRAINER

Coenraad Snyman is a specialist in the procurement of contracts in the engineering, construction and mining sector, in contract administration, claims and dispute resolution. He has practical experience in the use of most construction and engineering contracts. Coenraad is sought after and is often used as a trainer and facilitator on FIDIC, NEC, GCC and JBCC forms of contract, not only in South Africa but also internationally. He was, until September 2012, employed as a senior contract specialist at AngloGold Ashanti, the 3rd largest gold producer in the world. Prior to joining AngloGold Ashanti, Coenraad was a Director of Turner & Townsend and acted as head of their Contract Services division in Africa.

He has been admitted as an attorney in the High Courts of South Africa and Lesotho. Coenraad now practises as an independent consultant to the mining, engineering and construction industry, provides training in the procurement and use of FIDIC, NEC, GCC and JBCC contracts and is available for appointment as an adjudicator, arbitrator or DAB member.

He acts for and on behalf of parties in disputes but is often also consulted to advise clients, during the execution of the works, on ways in which to avoid and/or to resolve or settle matters prior to them escalating into formal disputes. He has also been appointed to facilitate an Advanced Contract Drafting course for the Law Society of South Africa. This
